

IRETON CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

HOLLY VIEW ACRES FIELD TRIP

On Tuesday, September 23, Ireton Christian spent the morning at Holly View Acres in the Psalm 23 themed corn maze. The younger kiddos stayed there in the afternoon and learned about pumpkins and fall things. Then they traveled to LeMars and enjoyed playing in the park. The older kids went to Sioux County Conservation Board/Oak Grove Park and did service work that included cleaning fire rings and pulling weeds.

We enjoyed our day in God's creation with the millions of little black bugs!

OAK GROVE SERVICE PROJECT
